

XM Radio is in the vanguard of subscriber technology. The commercial stations are afraid of losing their market share. If commercial stations are unable (or unwilling) to improve their listener products, then companies like XM Radio will be to audio entertainment what cable is to video entertainment. Let the subscribers decide, not the old party line.